We hope you enjoyed the event it was pretty mucky out there but

I have always enjoyed a mix of open roads and tight lanes with doable navigation which is what I tried to achieve .

Well done to all the crews and we luckily got a result

I have attached with these results, which have been verified by the jury of one ME and have made a couple of alterations that weren't obvious last night, copies of the navigation so you can see why it was close .

Experts have the most demanding handouts only to be opened at each control

Semi experts get the novice navigation to be opened at each control

Novices get the navigation handed out 30 mins before their start time to pre plot

A big thank you to all the marshals who travel great distances to offer their support voluntarily

Seasons greeting and see you all in the new year

Dave Clark and all the Blackpalfrey team
