Navigation will be straightforward but will require accurate plotting.

Thanks to the generosity of Utting Estates Limited, a degree of financial support will be available during this current series in order to stimulate interest for beginner crews. The introduction of 12-Car Rallies many years ago was intended to encourage newcomers into rallying and today this is still very much the principle aim. In this series beginners will be very welcome and a subsidy of £15.00 will be available on each round as a contribution towards their expenses.
